

EXODUS TO EASTERN SCHOOLS

This Week to Mark the Exodus of Omaha Students to the Colleges.

LARGE WEDDING THIS WEEK

(Continued from Page Two.)

parting for eastern colleges, two being registered for Wellesley, one forassar and one for the household arts course at Teachers' college, Columbia university, while another has not yet chosen her college.

Motor Trips Popular.

Roger Holman motored to Okoboji, Ia., Friday, to spend the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bucholz, Mrs. John W. Towle and Miss Marion Towle motored to Lincoln Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peters, Miss Gladys Peters and Miss Margaret Bruce motored to Okoboji, leaving here last Sunday and returning Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Chase, with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Givins Chase, and the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Mabie, and Miss Perla Weaver motored over from Des Moines and spent Sunday and Monday at the Fontenelle.

At Seymour Lake Country Club.

The Lotus club entertained at a dinner-dance Friday evening at the club.

Covers were laid for forty-one guests. Mrs. C. H. Marley was hostess at a golf luncheon Saturday. The table was set in the living room close by a roaring fire in the fireplace which added much cheer to the gloomy day. The table decorations were in yellow and brown and the flowers were arranged in the form of a star. Her guests included:

Mezbanes—W. B. Tager, George Francis, J. J. McAllister, J. H. Parratt, Bull, L. M. Lord.

Miss Mabel Melcher. The Sunday evening musical in no way interfere with the Tuesday night dancing party, many people having misunderstood the announcement. The program for this evening will be composed of vocal numbers by Miss Elizabeth Sirock, contralto; Mr. Bert Tanner, baritone; Miss Mabel Melcher, soprano; Miss Grace Minor, reader, and Mr. S. J. Bell, violinist.

At Happy Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Goodrich entertained at dinner last evening at the Happy Hollow club. Their guests were:

Mezbanes and Mesdames—M. M. Lyons, George K. Thompson, David Baxter, R. N. Howe.

Raymond Brown. Mr. and Mrs. R. Hoagland will entertain fourteen guests at dinner Monday evening at the Happy Hollow club.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Heyden will give a luncheon of forty-five covers, Thursday at the Happy Hollow club.

Others entertaining at dinner last evening at the Happy Hollow club were: G. L. Howell, who had four guests; E. L. Robinson, five; G. L. McRayden, eight; G. E. Walrath, four; A. V. Braun, four, and J. Burnett, eight.

Senator and Mrs. Norris Brown had as their guests at dinner Saturday evening at the Happy Hollow club:

Mrs. Hanna. Misses—Lucile Brown.

Mr. Howard Goodrich will entertain twelve guests at dinner this evening at the Happy Hollow club. G. L. Howell will have six guests; Joseph Crow, eight; Miss Milroy, four; R. L. Robinson, five; Norris Brown, eight; George L. McRayden, eight; C. E. Walrath, four; A. V. Braun, four; James Burnett, eight.

At the Field Club.

Mr. Thomas Kelly will have seven guests this evening at dinner at the Field club. L. M. Pagan, six; E. H. Howland, eight; H. O. Edwards, twelve; A. V. Shetwell, four; J. W. Hughes, four; Joe Shireman, four.

At the Country Club.

Dinners will be given this evening at the Country club by Harley Moorhead, who will entertain six guests; G. W. Watiles, six; D. M. Vinsonhaler, five; Robert Cowell, twenty, and J. W. Towle, twelve.

Return from the West.

Mrs. J. H. Lehmer, Miss Sharp and Miss Ida Sharp, who have been in California for five weeks, left San Francisco Wednesday and are expected home today.

Mrs. Harry Dooley and children arrived Wednesday from the I. X. L. ranch in Wyoming, where they have been since early in August.

Mrs. S. D. Barkalow and Miss Caroline Barkalow, who have been in California since July, returned home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cooley are expected home next week from California. Judge and Mrs. W. D. McHugh have returned from their western trip.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Barlow and son have returned from Bates and Glacier parks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. McGilton and daughter, Eleanor, and Miss Charlotte Williams, arrived home Sunday from California, where they have been since the latter part of July.

Will Live in Calgary.

Mrs. G. A. Engel and Mrs. W. J. Mettlen entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Engel at a 1 o'clock luncheon in honor of Mrs. Marietta Culver, who leaves soon to make her home in Calgary, Canada. The home was profusely decorated with garden flowers, and following the luncheon Mrs. Culver was given a miscellaneous "shower" by her friends. Those present were:

Mezbanes—W. J. Mettlen, Myrtle V. Miller, W. G. Rowe, R. Hathaway, E. J. Shields, Florence Waterbury, Marietta Culver, G. A. Engel, J. R. Inkster, Dr. Eleanor Dally, Misses—Elinor O. Kronstedt, Minnie Kendrick, Jean Wallace.

Notes of Interest.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Hamilton and daughter Ruth are expected home today after an extended automobile trip in the east. Mr. Warren Hamilton, who accompanied his parents, stopped off in Chicago, where he will next June complete his course in architecture.

Mrs. N. P. Dodge and Miss Caroline Dodge, accompanied by Mr. N. P. Dodge, Jr., returned from Clear Lake, Ia. Mrs. N. P. Dodge, Jr., who was at Clear Lake part of the summer, is now east visiting her father, Mr. Whitney, at Cohasset, and will not return until October.

Miss Gladys Brunner leaves this week, accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. C. A. Hyde, for Portland, Ore., where they will make their future home. They will visit the exhibitions en route. Miss Brunner has just returned from spending the summer at Lake Madison, Minn.

Miss Harriet Smith left Saturday for Boston to join her mother, Mrs. Arthur C. Smith, who has been east for ten days or two weeks. They will remain until after October 4, when Mrs. Smith

Omaha Matron Goes to Chicago to Live

Photo by Neve
Mrs. Clement Chase

will enter her youngest daughter, Helen, in school at Miss Pearce's in New York.

Mrs. S. S. Carlisle and children returned Tuesday from five weeks at Prior Lake, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. T. Belt and children returned from there Wednesday, having stopped over in Minneapolis a day or two. Mrs. Belt has been at the lake since the latter part of June.

Wedding Announcement.

The wedding of Miss Nellie Schomlau, daughter of Mrs. L. B. Schomlau, and Mr. John Julian Pearson was celebrated Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother. The Rev. Mr. Baitly of Kountze Memorial church performed the ceremony. Miss Amanda Tobben played the wedding march and during the ceremony sang "O Promise Me."

The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine and carried bride's roses. Miss Edith Faure was the bridesmaid. She was gown in lavender charmuse and carried an arm bouquet of blush roses. Master Louis Schomlau and Miss Winifred Swartz scattered rose petals in the path of the bride and Miss Margaret Swartz carried the ring in a rose.

The groom was attended by Mr. H. Olson as best man. The wedding was small, with just the immediate relatives as guests.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Mr. Dan Baum is on a business visit to New York City.

Miss Jessie Northrup has returned from her vacation in California.

Mrs. Arthur Lockwood has returned from Idlewild Inn, Persian Bay, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keeline returned Thursday from their ranch near Gillette, Wyo.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Woods left Saturday evening for Kansas City to spend a few weeks.

Miss Margaret Dennis is spending a week at Kansas City and Excelsior Springs.

Miss Theresa Peterson left Sunday for Neola, Ia., where she will teach school this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bowen and son, Raymond, have gone to Excelsior Springs for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hayes have returned from a trip to Detroit, Montreal and New York.

Mrs. A. J. McVann, accompanied by her son, Donald, and daughter, Esther, have returned from a month's stay at Glenwood Springs, Colo.

Mr. Casper Offutt left last Saturday for Canada to join Rustin and Kenneth

WINNING MENU

Submitted by Mrs. E. J. McVann, 1024 North Fourth street, which will be served September 12, from 12 to 2:00 p. m., in our 75c Sunday dinner menu contest.

75c

Consomme Clear
Cheese Sticks
Celery
Fried Pilaf of Pike, Tomato Sauce
Choice of—
Half Fried Spring Chicken, Virginia
Roast Leg of Mutton, Caper Sauce
Breaded Pork Tenderloin, Paprika Sauce
Mashed Potatoes June Peas
Grilled Sweet Potatoes Fried Egg Plant
Hot Relish
Fresh Shrimp Salad Mayonnaise
Fruit Cobbler, Wine Sauce or Fruit Ice Cream and Cake
Tea
Ice Tea Coffee Milk

This week ends our Menu Contest. Watch for announcement of another interesting prize feature.

GANSON'S CAFE
1508-10 Howard Street

members of the Kappa club Wednesday afternoon, at her home. Miss Dorothy Wilcox was the guest of the club. Miss Muriel Yord will entertain the club in two weeks at her home.

Entertained for Miss Mackin.

Miss Carrie Nagle entertained at her home Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Marie Mackin, who has been in New York City for the last year studying at Columbia university, and for her house-guest, Miss Virginia Lange of Helena, Mont., who leaves for her home today. The evening was spent in games and prizes were awarded to Miss Marie Mackin and Miss Lois Cratty. The guests included:

Misses—Marie Reynolds, Marie Mackin, Philomena Doyle, Grace Cumins, Edith Rustin, Vivian Kelley, Marie Kelley, Fustelle Gilligan, Ruth Mackin, Odessa Duncan, Mary Hayes, Winifred Kane, Mary Kane, Mary Barrett, Laura Best, Ella Kriger, Kathryn Davis, Rose Pascal, Genevieve Callahan, Kathryn Davis, Theresa Barnett, Margaret Reynolds, Irene Smith, Catherine Kenny, Virginia Lange, Lois Cratty.

Orpheum Theater Party.

Mrs. Beulah Sinclair entertained five guests at the Orpheum theater this afternoon.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. W. J. Hynes returned Tuesday from Excelsior Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Low moved this week to their new home on Thirty-eighth avenue.

Mrs. H. D. Couzens of Honolulu was the guest last week of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Holtman.

Miss Stella Robinson is recuperating at the Methodist hospital after an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson and son, James, Jr., arrived home Tuesday night from a summer in the east.

Mrs. Emma Collins and daughter Dorothy spent the past two weeks visiting with Mrs. Bertha Collins at St. Joe, Mo. Miss Mary McGeath and Miss Helen Eastman, with Mr. G. W. McGeath, went to Excelsior Springs Thursday for a week.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith and family returned Monday from Glacier park, where they spent the months of July and August.

Miss Luella Nelen, who has been spending the summer in the east studying, has returned and will reopen her studio September 15.

Miss Wilson of Newton, N. J., who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. David Baum and Miss Margaret Greer Baum to California, leaves today for her home.

Mrs. T. J. Mackay arrived home Thursday from Chicago, where she stopped over several days to visit her son, Odia, and his wife, on her way back from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keogh have taken the A. J. Love house at 127 North Thirty-second street, and will move into it within a week or two. Mrs. Keogh is still in New York.

Mrs. George Voss left Thursday for Philadelphia to visit her sister, Mrs. Allen, and Captain Allen, and was accompanied by her son, George, who enters Lawrenceville this year.

Mrs. Charles E. Ady and Miss Gertrude Ady returned from a six weeks' visit in time for school last week. Merrill Ady, who has been in Montana during summer vacation, also returned last week and has gone on to Monmouth college.

Judge and Mrs. W. A. Redick returned Monday from three weeks in the east. Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Gano, whose wedding they attended in Boston last month, Pleasures Past.

Mrs. Dan Wheeler and Mrs. William E. Martin entertained at luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. Martin in honor of Miss Beas Brown. Covers were placed for ten guests.

Miss Louise Thrane entertained the

Fat, Hard to Fit—Thin Still Worse
Any Figure Perfectly Fit—Is Our Guarantee.
NEW FALL AND WINTER MATERIALS TO SELECT FROM.
WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION.
PRICES ALWAYS REASONABLE.
LOHRMAN 438-435
THE RELIABLE LADIES' TAILOR.

Our First Authoritative Showing of Fall Millinery

Yesterday, Saturday, Sept. 11

was such a big success we will continue it for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week, so all customers may view our collection of beautiful hats.

New models from Paris and New York have arrived and are now ready for your inspection.

Priced at $3.00 and Up

Other lovely models by our own designers, Paris inspired, are here. Prices from $8.00 to $10.00.

O'Connor & Emblen

10th and Farnam. Second Floor Farnam Bldg.
Take Elevator Off of 10th Street.

reached Omaha Monday also on their motor trip to Denver and stopped over with Judge and Mrs. Redick several days.

Ray and Willard Millard returned today from a California trip. The former will leave Monday for Exeter and the latter for the Toms school next Saturday. Their father, W. R. Millard, and Joseph Millard, 25, with whom they were in California, will not return to Omaha until September 18.

Mr. Isaac Carpenter, Jr., and Mr. Thornton Pray of Newton, Mass., returned Tuesday from a trip to California. Mr. Pray will remain a guest at the Carpenter home until after the Kiewit-Carpenter wedding. Mr. Pray, Mr. Carpenter and Mr. Casper Offutt will have rooms together at Harvard this winter, all three going there for post-graduate courses.

Mrs. C. Y. Smith is breaking up her home here preparatory to returning again to Alexandria, La., where she and Mr. Smith have taken a house. Mrs. Smith expects to leave for the south next Wednesday and will be at the Fontenelle for a day or two prior to her departure.

Mrs. Walte Squier and daughter returned the middle of the week from California.

THREE MORE CONVENTIONS DECIDE TO MEET IN OMAHA

The bureau of publicity announces three more conventions just won for Omaha for the latter part of this year and next year. The National Farmers' Equity union is one. It is a farmers' co-operative selling body.

The Nebraska Public Health association is another body that is to hold a convention here some time during the year. The Kappa Alpha Sigma sorority, which met in San Francisco this summer, is another that is to hold its next convention in Omaha.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.
No regular Sunday vespers services are being held at the Young Women's Christian association while the Sunday campaign meetings are being held.

The gymnasium is already receiving registrations. Those who wish to enroll in any of the classes should get their applications in early and secure a locker for places in the class are limited. The gymnasium department has planned some very interesting parties and lectures besides the regular class work.

In the expression class Mrs. Edie Stoen Kittelson is to give the work. This class will be on Monday nights at 8 o'clock.

The chorus is to be revived this year under the leadership of Miss Con Schwarta and will meet on Thursday nights. Tryouts will be held during the week before and of registration. Miss Schwarta will be at the building at noon or at any time that arrangements are made with her.

Apartments, flats, houses and cottages can be rented quickly and cheaply by a Bee "For Rent."

Brandeis Theater Corset Shop

The New Gowns Demand

Scientific Corset Fitting.

There are many changes in the bust line, waist and back that must be made in order to acquire the correct figure for the latest fashions. We have made a special study of these. Corsetting you in accordance with newest lines, we guarantee to make you comfortable in any of our many corsets, including the famous Goodwin.

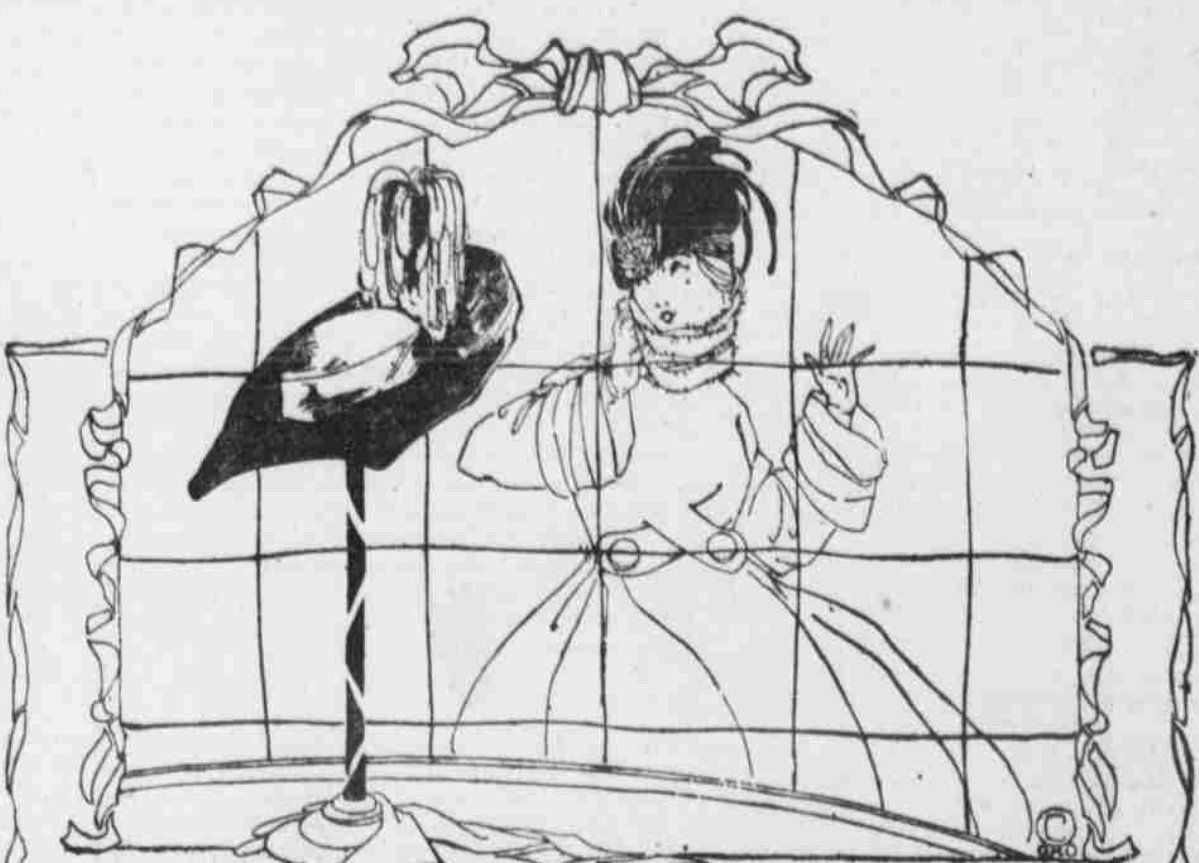

Appointment can be made by phoning D. 2434.

Ida C. Stockwell

556 Brandeis Theater Bldg.

MISS ADELYN WOOD Teacher of Piano

1034 Georgia Ave. Tel. Harney 2888.
Pupil of Max Landow and Holder of Teacher's Certificate from Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, Md.

AUTUMN MILLINERY OPENING

Monday—Tuesday—Wednesday

WE announce the arrival of representative displays of the authentic models in Autumn Millinery from the following prominent makers:

BENDEL GAGE KURZMAN LOUISE JOSEPH LEONE

A few imported Parisian hats are shown and a world of clever originations by our own talented designers depicting the new, the smart and the beautiful in the accepted styles for Fall. Consider this as a personal invitation to come and view our wonderful display of Fall Hats.

BURGESS-NASH COMPANY

"Everybody's Store."

NEW SYSTEM Of Rug and Carpet Cleaning

The Pantorium announces the opening of their newly equipped Rug and Carpet Cleaning Department

After investigating the rug cleaning business in several cities of both the East and West we decided on the machinery just installed as the most efficient and satisfactory methods in use today.

It consists of a Beater, Brusher, Vacuum machine in which each rug or carpet is individually cleaned without the least injury to warp or pile. We guarantee it.

We have also installed an Electric Rotary Brushing machine for Shampooing and Wet Cleaning.

PRICES

For Dusting, Steaming and Sterilizing, per sq. yd.10c

(Eighty per cent of all rugs need no other cleaning.)

For Shampooing or Wet Cleaning, per sq. yd.25c

(This includes the above treatment.)

For Drying Cleaning, per sq. yd.25c

(Used when color is not fast.)

For Resizing Rugs that have become limp or out of shape, per square yard5c

The above prices are for Wiltons, Brussels and other rugs of similar weight and value. Heavy Oriental cost from 5c to 10c per yard more, owing to weight and value.

Remember we guarantee perfect work, Prompt Service, Reasonable Prices and Courteous Treatment. That's what has made us the largest and best known Cleaning and Dyeing Establishment in the Middle West.

Call Douglas 963 and we will send a man to quote prices on all your rugs, draperies, curtains, table, couch and pillow covers, or any other household goods that require Care and Skill in handling.

THE PANTORIUM

"Good Cleaners and Dyers" 1513-15-17 Jones St. Phone Douglas 968.
Branch Office, 2016 Farnam Street, South Side, 528 No. 24th Street.
GUY LIGGETT, President. FRED C. WILMOTH, Secretary.